Professional objective:

I am making a career change to the field of web development after having worked in the fields of graphic design and education. I have a keen sense of structure and organization, as well as attention to detail, which bolster my technical skills in full stack languages and frameworks. I want to apply and expand upon these skills while working in my new chosen field.

Skills:

- Front-end: HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript
- Back-end: Python, Flask, Django, SQL, SQLAlchemy, database design
- Technical: Git and GitHub, Unix/Linux command line, fundamental knowledge of TCP/IP stack
- Software: WordPress; Chrome, Safari, and Firefox developer tools; macOS, Windows; IDE: PyCharm, WebStorm, DataGrip; Adobe Creative Suite, including InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop
- Writing: Strong writing skills, both technical and creative

Experience:

- My portfolio highlights projects designed for practical use. For example, the Damon & Felix Die-Cast Racing League website consists of historical and statistical records for the league, including a searchable vehicle database designed for team managers to help optimize decision making.
- Freelance graphic design, including logo, advertising, business system, and website design for small businesses such as law firms, recording studios, wooden boat refinishers, and other clients such as private schools and non-profit organizations.
- For many years I was a teacher assistant for students of all grade levels in public, non-profit, and private school settings, primarily with students with special education needs.

Education:

- Portland Community College | Computer Information Systems | January 2022–present | GPA: 4.0
- Portland Community College | Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree | Graphic Design
September 2007–June 2011 | GPA: 3.92
- University of Notre Dame | Creative Writing graduate studies and teaching position | Fall 2002
- University of Colorado at Boulder | Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree | English, Creative Writing emphasis
August 1996–December 2001 | GPA: 3.48

Hobbies:

- Musician and songwriter with over thirty albums, both solo and collaborative
- Illustrator and writer
- Nintendo—especially retro games
